Location

You can easily fall in love with Silver Star's Victorian village. Inspired by a typical nineteenth century British Columbia mining town era with Victorian architecture, this town is a true winter wonderland. Brightly colored storefronts and boarded sidewalks provide a unique ambiance that radiates fun, enthusiasm, and excitement for the whole family. Guests are attracted to the warmth and safety of the town where services and friendliness are as honored as the value of a time gone by. Silver Star has located just 22 km from all the conveniences of the City of Vernon, 50 minutes to Kelowna International Airport, and a 4 ½ hour drive to Vancouver. Silver Star isn't just a winter getaway, enjoy our ever-growing selection of mountain bike trails, hiking trails, guided nature walks, and summer time festivals
